Viewers Choice Competition

Submissions will be open June 1st 2026.

April 30th, 2027 will be Awksion's first ever Film and Music Festival, showcasing Canadian and International talent. The lineup will be chosen during a public voting period between January 1st 2027 and March 31st 2027. The festival will be a showcase of exceptional music and cinema - art that may have missed its due recognition the first time it was released. Talented artists don't always have the marketing budget to promote their work, and it is Awksion's mission to create a platform to get you recognized, but it will be the fans that will make you famous.

Is the festival online or in-person?

Yes to both! Viewers choice festivals will air online quarterly after public voting rounds. To keep it fresh each quarter there will be a batch of new content for the general public to vote on. There will be a grand in-person festival and ceremony occurring in Canada in Spring 2028 for the top 10 winners of 2027.

I missed the deadline to apply. Can I still enter the contest?

Stay tuned for the next submission period. Q2 entries will be open soon, with further entries being accepted on a rolling basis.

Are there other considerations for me to qualify?

In order for your videos to qualify, musicians must pledge a tour in 2027/2028 and filmmakers must be actively working on a new project that will be in production in 2027/2028. Fan-funding options will be available for those who generate enough interest. Please include your merch stores in your application if you have one.
